LITURGY OF THE WORD

First reading – A reading from the book of Wisdom 3:1-6. 9

Brian Bibby (brother)

He accepted them as a holocaust.

The souls of the virtuous are in the hands of God,
No torment shall ever touch them.
In the eyes of the unwise, they did appear to die,
their going looked like a disaster,
their leaving us, like annihilation;
but they are in peace,
If they experienced punishment as men see it,
their hope was rich with immortality;
slight was their affliction, great will their blessings be.
God has put them to the test
and provide them worth to be with him;
he has tested them like gold in a furnace,
and accepted them as a holocaust.
They who trust in him will understand the truth,
those who are faithful will live with him in love;
for grace and mercy await those he has chosen.

This is the word of the Lord

All Thanks be to God.

How gracious is the Lord, and just;
Our God has compassion.
The Lord protects the simple hearts;
I was helpless so he saved me.

All I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living
I trusted, even when I said:
'I am sorely afflicted,'
and when I said in my alarm:
'No man can be trusted.'

All I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living
O precious in the eyes of the Lord
Is the death of his faithful.
Your servant, Lord, your servant am I;
You have loosened my bonds.

All I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living

Gospel Acclamation

(please stand)

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come, you whom my Father has blessed, says the Lord;
inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world.

All Alleluia!

Gospel

Priest The Lord be with you.

All And with your spirit.

Priest A reading from the holy gospel according to Matthew (5:1-12a)

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

‘How happy are the poor in spirit;

theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle:

they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn:

they shall be comforted.

Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:

they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful:

they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart:

they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers:

they shall be called sons of God.

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:

theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

‘Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.’

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

FINAL COMMENDATION

Priest Before we take Jean to her resting place, let us take our leave of her. May our farewell express our love for her; may it ease our sadness and strengthen our hope. One day we shall joyfully greet her again when the love of Christ, which conquers all things, destroys even death itself.

Signs of Farewell

Priest With water, and with incense, we farewell Jean.
Saints of God, come to her aid!
Come to meet her angels of the Lord!

All Receive her soul and present her to God the Most High.

Priest May Christ who called you, take you to himself;
may angels lead you to Abraham's side.

All Receive her soul and present her to God the Most High.

Priest Give her eternal rest, O Lord, and may your light shine on her forever.

All Receive her soul and present her to God the Most High.

Prayer of Commendation

Priest Into your hands, God of mercies, we commend our sister Jean, in the sure and certain hope that, together with all who have died in Christ, he will rise with him on the last day.

We give thanks for all her gifts and talents and for all that Jean was to her family, friends, and the community.

Grant her eternal rest.

All Amen.
