Opening Remarks

Reverend Brian Howe

Life flows from God, like a tree beside the water sometimes standing gnarled by struggles or wounded in hidden ways, sometimes showing green shoots of survival or a surprising flower of kindness.
The tree of life is hard won, with birds of hope to be found within its branches.

Musical Interlude – Hymn ‘Oh Brother Man’

‘We are part of Life’

We are part of the tree of life.
We are the grieving and the moment of laughter,
We are the weeping and the sound of the song within.
We are the growing and the standing still, the despairing and the fleeting promise of new life the beginnings and the endings
We are life, not the whole, but a true part. We belong to the tree of life.

'Wild Mountain Thyme' Judy Collins

Wild Mountain Thyme

Oh the summertime is coming
And the leaves are sweetly turning
And the wild mountain thyme Blooms around the purple heather

Will you go laddie go
And we'll all go together
To pull wild mountain thyme
All around the purple heather

Will you go laddie go
If my true love will not go
I will surely find another
To pull wild mountain thyme
All around the purple heather

Will you go laddie go
And we'll all go together
To pull wild mountain thyme
All around the purple heather
Will you go laddie go
