Liturgy of the Word

First reading: 1 Corinthians 13:1-7

If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels,
but do not have love,
I am only resounding a gong or a clanging cymbal.
If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have faith that can move mountains,
but do not have love, I gain nothing.
Love is patient, love is kind,
Love is not jealous, it does not boast, nor is it proud.
It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking,
it is not easily angered, it keeps no records of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth.
It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.
The word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God

Gospel

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew (5:1-12a)

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them “Happy are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Happy are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.
Happy are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.
Happy are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
Happy are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.
Happy are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Happy are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven”.
Happy are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me.
Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven,
for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

All Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Michael's family thank you for the love and support given to us over recent days, and for joining the service in person or online. We also thank the generous community of St Carthage's, Father Frank Brennan and Father Joe Caddy.

We invite you to join us after the service for refreshments in the shaded, outdoor area of the Great Northern Hotel (644 Rathdowne St, Carlton North).
